

WHAT ARE LUNGS? WHAT DO THEY DO?

- Humans use lungs to breathe
- We breathe air into our bodies through our mouth and nose which leads to the lungs
- The air ends up in the 600 million alveoli in the lungs
- Alveoli allow oxygen from the air to pass into your blood through capillary walls to enter the blood
- The heart then pumps the oxygenated blood throughout the body